WHERE FANTASY FITS

Fantasy literature does not fit comfortably into any scheme. Both old and new, traditional and innovative, popular and elite, mainstream and esoteric, escapist and engaged, high-tech and anti-technology, fantasy defies definitions and transcends categories, dramatizing the incompleteness of our understanding of our own imaginations. At Mythcon 45 we will discuss the place of fantasy in our culture, our institutions, and our hearts.

CHECK IN AND CHECK OUT PROCEDURES for WHEATON COLLEGE

***Reminder*** Deadline for Room & Board packages is July 24.

Early check-in on Thursday will start formally at 8 p.m. in the Keefe Hall dormitory lobby on Wheaton campus. If you plan to arrive earlier than 8 p.m. please e-mail Michael Drout at mdrout@wheatoncollege.edu to let him know your approximate arrival time so that you may be properly received. Early check in will continue in the Keefe lobby over night until 8:00 a.m. Friday morning when normal check-in will start in the Davis Spencer Cafe in the Mars Center for Science and Technology, available until Sunday morning (#42 & #29, please see the map).

Key Deposit: Upon checking in, each guest must provide a key deposit of $85, payable in the form of cash or check addressed to "Wheaton College." Deposits will be sealed in an envelope and returned to guests upon return of the key.

Guests must check out by 1 p.m. Monday in the Davis Spencer Cafe. Please remember Monday breakfast is the last meal provided; however the café in the Balfour-Hood Campus Center will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

GETTING AROUND WHEATON COLLEGE

Wheaton College is a relatively small college campus; however, we hope to provide our guests with maximum ease of navigation in and around campus.

Please note that open trenches or other infrastructure work may be going on and conference attendees need to be cautious when walking through such areas.

ON CAMPUS

Wheaton College Campus Map can be found online to help guests locate proper parking areas and the check in location as well as the dorms where guests are staying; it is also included at the end of this Progress Report. Please note: Keefe Hall is #42 on the map, highlighted with a red circle. The Davis Spencer Cafe is #29, highlighted with a green circle; Mythcon 45 registration, programming, and normal Wheaton check-in take place there.

ACCESSING GUEST WIFI

Guest wifi is available for all users on campus in the open, unencrypted network named Guest. To login to the Guest wifi network, simply select the Guest network under your computer's Wireless Network Connection and enter the following registration password (all lowercase, no spaces): summer2014. This password will be valid throughout the conference.

PARKING & UNLOADING

On Friday during normal check-in conferees should park in Lot 8 first, check-in at the Davis Spencer Cafe in the Science Center, then go to their dorms (Beard, Gebbie, or Keefe) to avoid traffic congestion in the Keefe/Gebbie Circle. The Science Center isn't far from the dorms and has elevators for those who need them. Free parking is available in Lot 8 and Lot 4 (the Meadows Lot); on Friday Lot 8 might still be a bit full from staff & guests that are leaving so the Meadows Lot is a good back up until Lot 8 clears. We can use Lot 9 but it will most likely be full of staff.

THURSDAY ARRIVALS

For Mythcon guests arriving on Thursday, a list of restaurants around campus has been compiled, including information about distance from campus, food price ranges, phone numbers, and availability of delivery; this can be found at the back of this Progress Report.

Note: alcohol cannot be consumed on campus except inside formally approved spaces: the banquet setting; the private "hospitality" space; private rooms. Alcohol may not be carried in open containers on campus.

WEATHER EXPECTATIONS

Average August temperatures in Norton are low-80s. Expect mosquitoes in the evening (Golfimbul, hello!) so remember to bring and use insect repellent) - there may even be a little rain.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION

The Route 140 GATRA is a shuttle service that can bring guests to and from two different local shopping centers and the Mansfield Crossing train station. Trains to and from both Boston and Providence are available there.

***Please note that the areas highlighted in blue are the times the GATRA is not available during the summer.

REGISTRATION and ROOM & BOARD

We encourage members of the conference to take the room-and-board package. Even if you plan to stay off campus, we strongly recommend that you take meals on campus as shared meals are a large part of Mythcon and give attendees the chance to mingle with fellow mythopoeics; there are no restaurants less than ½ mile walk from campus. We have a limited number of air-conditioned rooms available. All payments for room and board must be received by July 24, 2014.

PROGRAMMING

Mythcon 45 has a full complement of individual presenters and multi-speaker discussion panels. Panels include:

Panel Discussion: Fantasy and Faith     Panel Organizer: Chip Crane

How does fantasy “fit” with faith? Can fantasy writing effectively express or affirm faith? How or when does it fall short of doing so? Tolkien, Lewis, and Williams are known for their Christian faith, and all three took distinctive approaches toward expressing it (or not) in their fiction. Panelists will comment on the questions above and related issues for the work of Tolkien, Lewis, and Williams, yet discussion will go beyond these three to contemporary fantasy writers. For example, J.K. Rowling weaves many Christian symbols into her Harry Potter series while leaving them almost devoid of any over religion. Phillip Pullman's His Dark Materials trilogy expresses what some would call an anti-faith response to fantasy. Are these and other writers successful in their approach? Panelists: Sørina Higgins, Carl Hostetter, Lynn Maudlin, Chip Crane (Moderator).

Panel Discussion: The Inklings and King Arthur

Panel Organizer: Sørina Higgins

The 2013 publication of The Fall of Arthur complicated the generic complexities of Tolkien's work: how does Tolkien's Arthurian poem fit into the palimpsest of Arthurian legends? how does it map onto Middle-earth? How does it interact with Arthurian works by other Inklings? This panel represents The Inklings and King Arthur, an upcoming academic collection edited by Sørina Higgins. The panelists discuss Lewis, Tolkien, Williams, Barfield, Arthurian source materials, MacDonald, and Chesterton.

Panelists: Chris Gaertner, Yannick Imbert, Cory Lowell Grewell, Benjamin Shogren, Brenton D. G. Dickieson, Sørina Higgins (Moderator).

Panel Discussion: College-level Tolkien: Teaching Middle-earth Sixty Years Later

Panel Organizer: Leslie Donovan

Since the beginning of Tolkien's popularity in the US, college teachers have developed an astounding variety of approaches to teach the mythic themes, historical backgrounds, and heroic constructs of Tolkien's Middle-earth works. While the early fellowship of Tolkien teachers inclined primarily to male, anti-establishment responses, today such colleagues include diverse types of mainstream readers, including women, honors students, and history buffs. In this panel, college-level teachers who have contributed to the soon-to-be-released MLA Approaches to Teaching The Lord of the Rings and Other Works by Tolkien will give brief presentations describing the joys and perils they encounter when they teach Tolkien. Panelists: Christopher Crane, Verlyn Flieger, Kristine Larsen, Corey Olsen, Brian Walter (Moderator).

Panel Discussion: Bringing Tolkien's World to (Digital) Life

Panel Organizer: Chris Pierson

Middle-earth is one of the most richly described worlds in fiction, with numerous iconic locations, but other places are merely mentioned in passing. As The Lord of the Rings Online passes from Rohan into Gondor, both Tolkien's most detailed locations and his sketchiest ones must be crafted with equal vibrancy. A panel of Turbine, Inc.'s artists and designers join with Michael Drout, Professor of English at Wheaton College, to show how they turn Tolkien's words into living environments.

Members of the Mythopoeic Conference are welcome to take available-light photographs and video for personal use, sharing via Facebook or Flickr, etc. We ask that you use caution when taking flash photographs.

Performers reserve all rights to their performances and may request that cameras (video and/or still) be turned off. NO film may be taken for commercial purposes without written clearance of the filmed subjects; neither may video be uploaded to YouTube or similar sites without express permission of the subjects of said video. Thank you for your cooperation; remember, the face you save may be your own!

DEALERS INFORMATION

Our dealers' room this year has a total of 20 tables available for use. We have 15 long tables that measure 6'x2' and 5 hexagonal tables that measure 2' on each side and 4' across. Dealers have a choice of one or two long tables, two long tables with a hexagonal table or three long tables with a hexagonal table. Tables start at $70 without Mythcon membership (dealer attends no papers, panels, or ents) or $125 with a Mythcon membership. To arrange for tables, please contact Mattie Gustafson at melianmeg@gmail.com.

EVENINGS & ENTERTAINMENTS

Classic Mythcon entertainments include the Friday evening Stewards' Reception: the Council of Stewards (the board of directors of the Mythopoeic Society) sponsors a festive meet-and-greet Friday night to welcome everyone to the conference and most evenings will offer Bardic Circles (music and poetry) after other entertainments. The Masquerade Costume Presentation is not a competition but a fun and informal presentation and every conferee is encouraged to participate; costumes inspired by fantasy literature are encouraged, whether or not the wearer has made the outfit him/herself. Each entry is recognized an award – the question is... what award? Masquerade entry forms will be available at the conference. Golfimbul and the Not-Ready-For-Mythcon Players will also make appearances.

While not necessarily fantasy-inspired, conferees are also encouraged to bring banners and wear costumes or their appropriate academic regalia in the Procession that precedes Opening Ceremonies. Dust off your regalia, wherever it's from, and enjoy Richard West's Scholar Guest of honor address!

Banquet & Mythopoeic Awards

Sunday night we will enjoy a banquet in Emerson Dining Hall, followed by the Mythopoeic Awards presentation and Ursula Vernon's Guest of Honor talk. Costumes or fancy dress are encouraged but not required.

Society Auction

The traditional Mythopoeic Society auction offers donated books and other items of mythopoeic interest for written bids in the silent-auction format. Items with more than one bid are then auctioned live on Sunday afternoon. You may find an item you've long sought, or a real bargain, among the items in the Auction. Bid early and often. Bring items to Mythcon, or contact Marion Van Loo at mvanloo@comcast.net if you are unable to attend yourself.

Books will also be offered for direct sale during the open hours in the Dealers' Room. Make your selections and complete the sale at the Society Sales Table.

Annual Mythopoeic Society Meeting

The annual members' meeting of the Mythopoeic Society will take place late Monday morning and all conference members are welcome, whether Mythopoeic Society members or not. It's a brief, informative session, and we will talk about the upcoming triennial election, followed by Closing Ceremonies.

The Mythopoeic Society is an international literary and educational organization devoted to the study, discussion, and enjoyment of the works of J. R. R. Tolkien, C. S. Lewis, Charles Williams, and mythopoeic literature. We believe the study of these writers can lead to greater understanding and appreciation of the literary, philosophical, and spiritual traditions which underlie their works, and can engender an interest in the study of myth, legend, and the genre of fantasy. Find out about past conferences at Mythcon History
